Dom believes that games of skill are 80% mental and 20% physical and in this seminar he'll explain why. ### Winning Tournament Blackjack!

Instructor: Dr. Henry Tamburin, columnist, author of Blackjack Take the Money and Run!, publisher of Blackjack Insider e-Newsletter

In blackjack tournaments you are competing against other players rather than against the house for guaranteed prize money. Whether you win or lose bets against the house isn't what's important; what matters is whether you win more (or lose less) than your opponents. Your edge in tournaments, therefore, arises from being a better tournament player than your opponents. Let blackjack expert, Dr. Henry Tamburin, a finalist in the Las Vegas Hilton Million Dollar Blackjack Tournament, show you how tournaments work, how to evaluate them, and how to play your hands and bet the right amount at the right time to gain the advantage over the other players.
